

PRAYER POINTS

November 22 & 24, 2022

“For where two or three gather together as my followers,
I am there among them.” - Matthew 18:20

This week's topics to pray over:

- During this season of thanksgiving, give thanks to God for all He is doing in our lives, our nation and the world.
- That believers worldwide, even in war-torn territories, will receive God's protection and deliverance.

This week's prayer of agreement:

Heavenly Father, today we come before You, giving thanks. We thank You for all You're doing in our lives, in this nation and around the world. When we reflect on Your faithfulness over this past year, we can't help but rejoice! We see You moving, Lord. We see You intervening, bringing a divine turnaround in our country. Every day we hear the good news of the gospel reaching more people in more places, changing lives. We rejoice that despite the challenges we sometimes face, we live in a nation of freedom, and we constantly see You doing great and marvelous works. Your grace abounds!

As we rejoice, Father, we also recognize that there are believers worldwide who are struggling. We pray for those in war-torn territories, that they will receive Your divine protection and deliverance. As sparks of freedom ignite, help us, Your worldwide Church, to have wisdom and clear direction. Those of us who live in freedom know we have a pivotal role in helping our brethren. We stand in prayer for those facing peril, and we stand ready to help. Show us where we can best sow seeds of support to undergird our brothers and sisters in Christ. We want to do all we can to give them strength and secure their victory.

We are in this together, Lord, and we are in this with YOU. Once more, we thank You for Your faithfulness. In You we live and move and have our being. Amen!
