

PRAYER POINTS

October 11 & 13, 2022

For where two or three gather together as my followers,
I am there among them. (Matt 18:20)

This week's topics to pray over:

- That even if the economic changes persist, God's people will continue to experience victorious living
- That as God leads, we will look to Him as our Source above all that is said or heard around us.

This week's prayer of agreement:

Heavenly Father, as we look at the signs of the times, many of those signs point to the possibility of a major correction in the world's economic markets. If that happens, it will be a significant event—but as Your people, we refuse to let changing times shake us! Instead, we choose to look to You as our Source. When Peter, James and John went fishing, they caught nothing...but Jesus knew how to help them. He gave them clear direction, and they were obedient. They trusted Him as their Source—and prospered because of it! We'll do the same.

Holy Spirit, we trust You to lead us in the uncertain times ahead. As Spirit-filled believers, we decide today to not participate in any recession. We trust in You instead. Holy Spirit, create rich opportunities for Your people. Illuminate what we each need to do with the gifts and talents You have given us. Give Your people creative and witty inventions that are insulated from the world's system.

We will not give into fear. We have sound minds for the days ahead. We humbly ask for Your wisdom as we stay informed in the spirit of faith. We know that everything that happens still happens under Your grace and Your goodness. No matter what the world around us looks like, we lean into Your faithfulness. You always come through! Amen!
